

furniture

Phillips Collection

What's old is new again in Patchwork stools. Discarded wood sourced from Thailand creates these organic pieces. The lighter-colored Teak Slices measures 16 inches square by 18 high. Teak Driftwood is a little larger at 17 inches square by 18 high, 336-882-7400; phillipscollection.com. circle 487

Chista

Tamarin Slice #30 is aptly named. The table is, literally, a slice of solid Tamarin wood with a naturally occurring void in its center. It measures up at 18½ inches long by 9½ wide by 18½ high. 212-924-0394; chista.net. circle 491

Angela Adams

Make your dinner table a safe Haven for conversation. The cherry wood table measures 90 inches long by 42 wide by 29 high. The standard set seats six in chairs made with Danish cord; but the group's size, composition, and finish are customizable. 800-255-9454; angelaadams.com. circle 488

Lee Weitzman Furniture

The Puzzle table recalls a child's elongated building blocks, grouped to form a hip base for its glass top. At 60 inches long by 24 wide by 16 high, the solid mahogany base also comes in solid maple. Four finishes are available. 312-243-3009; leeweitzmanfurniture.com. circle 490

MRCW

Plain tables from the Gelato collection are anything but. Offered in three flavors: Strawberry, or black acacia; Chocolate, or claro walnut; and Vanilla, a.k.a. Monterey cypress, the 15-inch-wide-by-23-inch-high tables are finished with tung oil. Solid brass feet top off each confection. 510-420-7018; mrcwdesignbuild.com. circle 489

Go to interiordesign.net for an archive of featured products.